THE LAZIEST MAN.

Too Indolent to Live and So He Died to Save Exertion.

"Remember Bilkins?" he asked after they had exchanged greetings and gotten down to reminiscences of the days when they were boys.

"Lazy Bilkins?" asked the other.

"The same."

"Bilkins, the boy who was too lazy to cry when his father licked him?"

"That's the one."

"Afterwards became labor agitator or something of that sort?"

"Yes."

"O, yes, I remember him. He was always kicking."

"Always. But he's happy now."

"You don't mean it! What's happened to him?"

"He's dead."

The other figured on the matter for a minute and then said:

"Um, well, I don't know about his being happy. Seems to me you're taking a good deal for granted. You don't know where he's gone."

"That makes no difference," was the reply. "He doesn't have to work for his living in either place, and he'll stand the discomforts all right."—Chicago Tribune.

A Very Useful Book.

"Health and Pleasure on America's Greatest Railroad" is the title of a charming little volume issued by the Passenger Department of the New York Central & Hudson River railroad, with new and attractive features added to the publication of former years.

The frontispiece is a fine view of that noble structure, the Washington Bridge across the Harlem, but that is merely a hint of the beauties that follow. No one who glances over the book can fail to get a comprehensive idea of the wealth of scenery through which the road passes, not to mention the valuable information that is systematically arranged throughout the book in regard to the hotels and boarding houses, the prices of board, the fares, the distances, the possible excursion, and, in a word, all that usually inquiring person, the Summer tourist, can possibly think of desiring to learn.

Copies of the book will be forwarded free to any address upon receipt of ten cents postage by George H. Daniels, General Passenger Agent, Grand Central Station, New York, or W. B. Jerome, General Western Passenger Agent, Chicago.

THE man who wants the earth need not expect to get it without advertising.—Indianapolis Journal.

Death and Taxes.

Are not sorer than the fact that if you are constipated, the most efficient, as well as the least painful laxative, is Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, gentle and thorough, not violent and weakening like a drastic cathartic. Together with the bowels, the liver and stomach are regulated and invigorated by this genial reformer, which also subjugates malaria, rheumatism, neuralgia, nervousness and disorders of the kidneys.

THE spoon craze pervades the watering places. It takes only two to make a full set.—Boston Herald.

A Pleasing Sense.

OF health and strength renewed and of ease and comfort follows the use of Syrup of Figs, as it acts in harmony with nature to effectually cleanse the system when costive or bilious. For sale in 50c and $1.00 bottles by all leading druggists.

A MUSIC dealer advertises "The Smoker's Song." A spit tune, probably.—Boston Commercial Bulletin.

PAIN in the side nearly always comes from a disordered liver and is promptly relieved by Carter's Little Liver Pills. Don't forget this.

THE man who occupies the front seat is not always the most "advanced thinker."—Columbus Post.

NO REMEDY has saved so many sickly children's lives as Dr. Bull's Worm Destroyer. They never fail and children like them too.

IT takes an unusually good swimmer nowadays to float a loan.—Boston Herald.

FLANNEL next the skin often produces a rash, removable with Glenn's Sulphur Soap. Hill's Hair and Whisker Dye, 50 cents.

SUNDAY is the summer landlord's day of woe.—Boston Transcript.

The smallest is the best in pills, other things being equal. But, with Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets, nothing else is equal. They're the best, not only because they're the smallest, and the easiest to take—but because they do more good. They cleanse and regulate the liver, stomach and bowels in a way the huge, old-fashioned pill doesn't dream of. Think of trying to regulate the system with the ordinary pill. It's only good for upsetting it.

These are mild and gentle—but thorough and effective, no pain—no griping. One little pellet for a laxative—three for a cathartic. The best Liver Pill known. Sick Headache, Bilious Headache, Constipation, Indigestion, Bilious Attacks and all derangements of the liver, stomach and bowels are prevented, relieved and cured.

Put up in sealed vials—a perfect vest-pocket remedy, always convenient, fresh and reliable.

They're the cheapest pill you can buy for they're guaranteed to give satisfaction, or your money is returned. It's a plan peculiar to Dr. Pierce's medicines.

You pay only for the good you get. Can you ask more?
